453	03/08/2024	MINUTE ORDER (IN CHAMBERS) Order Requiring Parties to Revise Trial Filings by Judge Mark C. Scarsi. The parties disagree about the fundamental questions to be presented to and resolved by the jury. Based on the trial filings and the rest of the case record, the Court perceives three issues to be resolved by the jury: (1) What is the appropriate interpretation of JDLA § 6.2?; (2) Based on that interpretation, did Samsung breach JDLA § 6.2?;

		and (3) If Samsung breached, was the breach material? The Courts proposed framework leaves unanswered several questions about how the parties intend to present the case to the jury. The Court orders the parties to meet and confer about these concerns and file by March 12, 2024, revised proposed jury instructions, verdict forms, statement of the case, and final pretrial conference order. The parties also may revise their other trial filings by this date. See document for details. (smo) (Entered: 03/08/2024)

489	04/12/2024	MINUTES (IN CHAMBERS) by Judge Mark C. Scarsi: ORDER RE: Ex PARTE APPLICATION [487]. Plaintiff Netlist Inc. filed a motion to quash a trial subpoena directed to Gail Sasaki, which is set for hearing on May 6, 2024, the same date as the final pretrial conference in this case. (Mot., ECF No. 486.) Plaintiff applies ex parte for an order shortening time on its reply deadline and committing the Court to resolve the motion without a hearing. Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., opposes the application. Assuming there is cause for ex parte consideration because Plaintiff could not obtain the requested relief by a properly noticed motion set for hearing before the underlying motion to quash, Mission Power Eng'g Co. v. Cont'l Cas. Co., 883 F.Supp. 488, 492 (C.D. Cal. 1995); C.D. Cal. R. 6-1, the Court denies the application. Plaintiff proposes an order shortening time on its own reply deadline, (Proposed Order, ECF No. 487-3), but no order to that end is necessary-Plaintiff may file its reply earlier than the deadline at its convenience, see C.D. Cal. R. 7-10. Plaintiff asks the Court to agree to resolve the motion without a hearing, (Proposed Order), but the Court hesitates to confirm the motion can or should be decided without oral argument until Defendant files its brief responding to the underlying motion, if not until the Court has full briefing. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 78(b); C.D. Cal. R. 7-15. And Plaintiff encourages the Court to resolve the motion to quash before the hearing date, (Appl. 1), but the Court, sitting in one of the busiest district courts in the country, is unwilling and unable to commit to that. The Court will consider Ms. Sasaki's travel situation in determining how and when to adjudicate the motion to quash. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 1. But the application is denied. (lc) (Entered: 04/12/2024)

493	04/16/2024	MINUTES (IN CHAMBERS) by Judge Mark C. Scarsi: ORDER RE: MOTION TO QUASH 486 , 491). Plaintiff Netlist Inc. moves to quash a trial subpoena directed to its chief financial officer, Gail Sasaki, based on her unavailability due to international travel. (Mot., ECF No. 486.) Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., opposes the motion. (Opp'n, ECF No. 490.)1 The Court deems the motion appropriate for decision without oral argument. Samsung applied to seal documents supporting its opposition brief that contain personally identifiable information of witnesses and material designated confidential under a protective order. (Appl., ECF No. 491.) The Court finds good cause to seal the information and grants the application. Court determines that the high potential prejudice to Ms.Sasaki outweighs the other factors. The trial subpoena directed to Ms. Sasaki imposes an undue burden and must be quashed. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A)(iv). The motion is granted. (lc) Modified on 4/16/2024 (lc). (Entered: 04/16/2024)

574	05/22/2024	MINUTES (IN CHAMBERS) by Judge Mark C. Scarsi: ORDER RE: PENDING APPLICATIONS (ECF NOS. 514, 516, 525, 530, 535, 537, 538, 561, 571). Plaintiff Netlist Inc. applied ex parte for an order precluding Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., from using a recently produced translation of a trial exhibit 516 . For the reasons provided by Netlist and stated in the trial record, the application is GRANTED. Netlist also moved ex parte for an order precluding Samsung from calling Hyun-Ki Ji as a live witness in its case in chief 537 . For the reasons provided by Samsung and stated in the trial record, the application is DENIED.The parties filed applications to seal documents submitted in connection withthese ex parte applications and other filings in the case record relating to trial 514 , 525 , 530 , 535 , 538 . These include documents and information subject to a protective order, previously sealed by the Court, or pertaining to sensitive, confidential business information or personally identifying information about witnesses. The Court finds good cause and compelling reasons to seal these documents. The Court GRANTS the applications and directs the parties to file the documents subject to the applications under seal. Finally, Netlist filed an application to seal a notice memorializing purportedly improper conduct toward the jury foreperson by individuals affiliated with Samsung after the conclusion of trial 561 , and Samsung filed an application to seal its response thereto 571 . The parties aver that these documents "contain[] private information relating to a juror." The applications are DENIED without prejudice to renewal. Although these documents relate to a juror, the Court perceives no personally identifiable information about the juror revealed in them except the juror's gender. There appears to be no "information that [is] actually sensitive and deserving of privacy protection" giving the Court good cause to seal the documents "to preserve the anonymity of the [juror] sought to be protected." 		590 AND REQUIRING FURTHER PREFILING CONFERENCE. Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., applies for leave to seal certain documents supporting its motion for judgment as a matter of law or, in the alternative, for a new trial. Samsung asserts the documents contain "highly sensitive and personally identifiable information relating to several jurors." (Appl. 2, ECF No. 590.) The Court grants in part and denies in part the application. THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION MAY BE MAINTAINED UNDER SEAL (SEE SPECIFIC CHART AND SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS HEREIN). Exhibit 78 to the Lucas declaration demonstrates the parties did not conduct a meaningful, timely prefiling conference of counsel over the issues presented in Samsung's motion, including but not limited to the juror bias issue The Court orders the parties to conduct a live conference of counsel and file a declaration by each partys counsel establishing compliance within 14 days. The Court warns that any further failure by any party to initiate or participate in a Local Rule 7-3 conference will be deemed willful disobedience of this Order and will result in sanctions and/or denial of the motion.
